

Foto: Universität Mannheim, Anna Logue

Forschungsseminar (FSS 2023):
Neue Forschungen zur Mittelalterlichen Wirtschaftsgeschichte
Research Seminar on Medieval Economic History

Organisator*innen / Organisers: Dr. Alex Spike Gibbs & PD Dr. Tanja Skambraks

Raum / Location: tba

Uhrzeit / Time: 17:15-20:30 (dienstags / on tuesdays)

- 14.02.2023 Stefan Holz (Hauptstaatsarchiv Stuttgart): Cash Journals in England's Royal Financial Administration, c.1300
- 21.02.2023 Angela Huang (Forschungsstelle für die Geschichte der Hanse und des Ostseeraums): What is quality? Textiles as a differentiated commodity in Hanse trade
- 07.03.2023 Harmony Dewez (Université de Poitiers): The monks of Canterbury and their parisian wine: an administrative history (XIIth-XVth c.)
- 18.04.2023 Tony Moore (University of Reading): Debt collection during the Black Death: England 1347-1350
- 09.05.2023 Marie Jaecker (Universität Kiel): Financial Accounting at Monastic and Secular Cathedrals – A Case Study of Ely and York
- 16.05.2023 Jordan Claridge (London School of Economics and Political Science): The Horse Trade in Late Medieval England

Zusätzlich / in addition:

- 01.03.2023 Eva-Maria Cersovsky (Universität zu Köln): Women's Work? Approaching Women and Work in Later Medieval Hospitals, 13:45-15:15, tba

Bitte senden Sie eine E-Mail an die Organisator*innen unter tanja.skambraks@uni-mannheim.de und alex.spike.gibbs@uni-mannheim.de, um einen Link zur Fernteilnahme zu erhalten.

Please email the organisers at tanja.skambraks@uni-mannheim.de and alex.spike.gibbs@uni-mannheim.de for a link to attend remotely.