

GROWING OPPORTUNITIES

Not everyone can claim that their work contributes to the fundamental needs of the world's growing population. At John Deere, you can!

As a leading global machinery manufacturer, we produce technologically advanced agricultural, forestry, construction, lawn and grounds care equipment. In recent years, we have developed the company into a more technology focused business. Share with us, our vision of a farm of the future, based on artificial intelligence, automation and connectivity to sustainably feed and shelter our growing world. #leapforward

John Deere Walldorf GmbH & Co. KG serves as our Sales & Marketing competence center for Europe, North Africa, Middle East and CIS and counts about 300 employees who support our dealers to deliver the best possible service to our customers.

Effective immediately for 6 months, John Deere Walldorf GmbH & Co. KG is looking for a

Intern Dealer Development – Remarketing Services (m/f/d)

Your Responsibilities:

- During your internship you will work on Remarketing Services supporting on activities concerning Reporting, Digital Transformation and Marketing.
- From first day you will have the opportunity to interact with internal and external stakeholders in an international environment.
- You will assist on the quality and timely completion of monthly market overview reporting,
- You will contribute to the further development and optimization on the current digital ecosystem, mapping interfaces between various digital tools, APIs, and 3rd parties, providing business process improvements.
- You will actively support on the organization of events, meetings, marketing content and communication.

What Skills You Need:

- Pursuing a bachelor's or master's degree in, Ag Economics, Ag Engineering, Business Administration, Marketing, Marketing Analytics.
- Good knowledge of Microsoft 365 applications, especially Excel and PowerPoint. PowerBI knowledge will make you stand out.
- Structured, Self-organized, Team player with high level of independence.
- Creativity and interest to familiarize yourself with new methods and tools.
- Very good English language skills, German, French and another European language would be an advantage.

What You'll Get:

- Insight into the activities of a global organization and an international working environment
- attractive compensation package
- flexible and modern work as well as development and further training opportunities
- 35 hours/ week
- creative freedom in the implementation of projects and good supervision
- discounted lunch in the cafeteria

This internship will be based in Walldorf. If you are interested in this internship, we are looking forward to your application. Please be sure to include the following:

Cover letter/letter of motivation & Curriculum Vitae

Desired period/duration of internship & earliest possible start date

Certificates

University enrollment certificate

Overview of marks/grades & academic regulations/ examination regulations or internship guidelines

This is not what you are looking for? Feel free to use our Job Alert feature to receive notifications as soon as new postings are made in your area of interest!

Additional Information:

To process applications, we use our online platform at our John Deere career page. We are not able to process applications through e-mail or post and ask for your understanding. Please complete the online application form, if you want to apply for a position at John Deere. If you have any questions about your application, please contact: Praktikantenmanagement@JohnDeere.com